Our Project Logo

Our logo draws inspiration from the traditional way this beverage is served. It features one of the most common cups in Honduras, crafted from aluminum.

The color palette draws inspiration from the hues of the drink's ingredients as well as the autumn and winter seasons.

Catracho Coconut Ponche

Mission: Our mission is to craft and deliver a modernized version of traditional Honduran hot punch (ponche), using innovative quality ingredients that preserve its cultural essence while offering an authentic and first-class beverage experience for contemporary consumers.

Vision: To become a leading brand in the functional and conventional beverage market by revolutionizing traditional Honduran hot punch, highlighting cultural pride locally, and introducing iconic Honduran flavors to international markets by 2031.

General Objective: To create a creative and appealing version of the traditional Honduran ponche that preserves its cultural value while introducing new flavors and an enhanced presentation.

Specific Objective: To create distinctive beverage by blending traditional and innovative ingredients and presenting it with dehydrated apple slices, artisanal cocoa and cinnamon cookies.

Product Description

Catracho Coconut Ponche is a creative adaptation of the traditional Honduran Christmas ponche. Prepared with skim milk, eggs, cinnamon, vanilla, coconut, sugar, and Yuscarán liquor, it offers a smooth and flavor. The beverage is decorated with dehydrated apple slices and artisanal cocoa from Atucun, one of the most recognized chocolate producers in Comayagua. It is served with cinnamon cookies, creating a balanced combination of flavors that celebrates Honduran traditions with a modern touch.To create innovative food and beverage experiences that showcase the richness of Honduran culture, support local products, and connect people with the traditions and flavors of Honduras.
